Collegiate Division Eligibility Documentation

As an applicant for a Collegiate membership you should accurately mark the division that most closely represents your riding ability and experience. Should you have questions or disputes about your eligibility, please direct them to the Collegiate Committee of the ASHA Board of Directors. Once riders have started the calendar year in one division they may remain in said division until the next year. However, the Collegiate Committee or Collegiate Team Coach has the right to reassign a rider to a higher division, if needed.

_____ Non-Pro/Open

_____ Non-Pro/Open

- Riders who have placed in the Top Ten of a Nationally Recognized Qualifying Competition such as a World or National Breed competition in reining or working cow horse.
- Riders who have shown for more than three years and/or won a year end high-point division in Non-Pro or Limited Non-Pro in Stock Horse of Texas or similar association.
- Riders who have shown competitively for more than 5 years in reining or working cow horse in an organized national association or breed association.
- Riders who actively take money for training, riding or giving lessons or have done so in the past two years.

_____ Limited Non-Pro

- Riders who have more than two years showing experience, but less than five years in reining or working cow horse.

_____ Novice

- Riders who have had less than two years showing experience, and have not won a high-point in a division at an ASHA/SHOT show or similar breed association.

This is my 1st____, 2nd____, 3rd____, 4th____ year to show in ASHA/SHOT Collegiate Shows. A student has four years of eligibility which may be used as an undergraduate or graduate student.

I have accurately and truthfully presented the eligibility information and marked the division that most closely represents my riding and showing ability.
