SHOT Kicks of 2010 with Stephenville, Texas Show

ABILENE, TEXAS – Chilly weather did not interfere with the first show of the season for the Stock Horse of Texas Association. The 2010 season kicked off with a show in Stephenville, Texas, sponsored by the Tarleton State University's Horsemen's Association. The show featured 176 entries spread over six divisions.

In the Open, Laurie Shelton won the all around, riding A Real Chic Magnet, followed by Jake Murray and MH All Bets On Me capturing reserve. The Non Pro division featured Bobby Weber and Royal Smoken Bob in the top spot, with Alicia Daughterty and Hesa Sug in reserve.

In a large group of Limited Non Pro riders, Laura Pearson and TSU Highbrow Sonita finished first in the all around, followed by Theresa Woodard and Conchos Colonel. Novice rider Dustie Householder rode Hickory Gota Spot to win the Novice All Around, followed by Kelsey Stokes and Shot Of Irish for reserve.

Jason Farrington and Double Dealing Dude finished on top in the Youth division, with Megan Williamson and Reminicole garnering reserve. Green Horse competitor Levi Williamson topped his division with Flash And Money, followed by Jennifer Matthews and Jenns Nic.
